A 600-Hour Expert-Level Training On Sexuality, Love And Relationships

In this certification, you'll learn how to be a professional coach and lead transformative private or group sessions from anywhere in the world. You'll become skilled at using my proprietary VITA™ Coaching Method (The Vital and Integrated Tantric Approach to Coaching) in a clear and structured way, allowing you to lead your clients through a comprehensive and highly effective coaching process every time.

Layla Martin

— VITA™ Method, Creator and Founder

The focus will first be on your own personal transformation so that you can embody the work in an inspiring and authentic way. You will then undergo a rigorous professional training process so that you feel confident using the tools and guiding sessions at an expert level.

The core values of this program are that sexuality is beautiful, that pure love sustains us and that meaningful relationships are necessary for a joyful life.

We'll work from an understanding that we are all sexual beings with a tremendous capacity for love and connection. In supporting ourselves and our clients, we are allowing for a new social structure to emerge where we celebrate our sensual nature and live authentically by choosing love over fear while embracing both.

The transformation occurs not from trying to be something different, but by gently removing the blockages, fears and contractions around our sexuality, hearts, and relationships to reveal the wholeness and health that was always there.

This coaching certification is taught in three (3) trimesters with an optional one-week live retreat offered only to VITA™ Coaching students.

Total Self-Transformation Process

JANUARY - APRIL, 2025

Experience yourself expand into your true authentic nature of power and pleasure, becoming the Queen or Royal Sovereign of Sex, Love and Relationships yourself. This trimester is a deep dive into fully exploring your own sexuality, heart and ways of relating. You'll start to fully embody all of the practices and techniques you'll be guiding your clients through. You'll explore your greatest fears and wounds and grow into your greatest gifts and capacity.

The 10 Core Coaching Modules of the Vital and Integrated Tantric Approach (VITA™) Method

MAY - SEPTEMBER, 2025

An exploration into the VITA™ proprietary 10-module system for expertly transforming your clients in a systematic and lasting way. This system allows you to solve virtually any issue by giving your clients the safety to drop limiting conditions and beliefs while restoring their original power of choice.

OPPORTUNITY TO JOIN OPTIONAL LIVE IMMERSION:

The VITA™ Coaching Embodiment Retreat

JUNE 14TH - 21ST OR JUNE 21ST - 28TH, 2025

An absolutely epic, week-long intensive embodiment process of Tantric activations, rituals and your own profound wisdom. This week is a deep dive into nature, celebration and the wild feminine. The retreat is offered only to VITA™ Coaching students and your payment covers accommodations, food and staff costs.

Business Bootcamp

SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER, 2025

A deep dive into the realms of business that you need so you can become clear on your unique offering to the world. You'll select an angle for your business and coaching practice that will focus your message and marketing. Sales talents and your wealth mindset are developed so that you can charge $150 - $1000/hour for your coaching and comfortably sell high-end coaching packages of $1500 - $10,000 per client. Included in Business Bootcamp is a week long Virtual Business Retreat where you'll master your skills and hone your craft.

Post-Program Coaching and Business Support

This program is robust compared to others on the market. Offering this amount of unique value is in the highest service of producing truly excellent coaches. To best support your success at whatever pace, additional Coaching and Business Development calls are included in your tuition.

We offer a structured space for you to be open and vulnerable about your life and experiences. This space will support you and your fellow coaches as you reflect and grow together. You will also have the opportunity to ask questions and receive guidance in monthly live calls with our team.

This allows you to fully integrate the material and get support when you need it most: as you launch your coaching business and begin working with clients in the real world!

(Vital and Integrated Tantric Approach)

THE 3 PILLARS OF THE COACHING CERTIFICATION

The 3 Pillars of the Coaching Certification

LOVE

RELATIONSHIPS

While you will be encouraged to specialize in a particular area as a coach, the interdependent nature of love, sex and relationships means that in order to understand one fully, you must also understand the others.

On the following pages are descriptions of how these three pillars interlock in the training. Each of the pillars will also be supported by the VITA™ Method that you'll learn in Trimester Two.

Love

Each child is born with a heart of pure love and joy. However, layers of pain, family conditioning, disappointment, fear and heartbreak form barriers against the daily experiences of love and self-love.

The ability to love oneself and others forms the foundation of all healthy and passionate relationships and is present in all great sexual experiences, making it necessary to understand how to unblock and experience love for yourself and your clients as the underlying foundation of great sex and meaningful relationships.

Love is the basis of the intimacy that we all hunger for, and intimacy is the magic that brings sex and relationships alive.

Some examples of Love topics covered within the VITA™ Coaching Method are:

- How to restore a broken heart
- Truly effective tools for creating self-love
- How to change the love dynamic of a couple
- Self-love in the cycles of life (pregnancy, parenting, divorce, relationships, single life, menopause, old age)
- The inner workings of love and how to experience healthy intimacy

Sex

Each of us is gifted with a thriving, vibrant and healthy sexuality. Almost everyone loses contact with this original power, resulting in broken relationships and/or depression, sadness, numbness and sexual problems.

A healthy sexuality that is cared for and understood forms the basis of all high-functioning relationships. As sexuality is such a core part of our bodies and selves, it is virtually impossible to love oneself without a deep acceptance of one's authentic sexuality.

Building a regular sexual self-care practice is revolutionary and is going to be the next expanding interest in our culture. Along with the explosive growth of nutrition, yoga and mindfulness, sex is the next frontier that people are hungry to explore and evolve in.

Some aspects of Sex topics covered in the VITA™ Coaching Method are:

- How to keep passionate sex alive in long-term relationships
- How to address common sexual issues like anorgasmia, impotence, pain during sex and lack of desire
- How to use sex for personal development
- How to address sexual traumas
- How to release layers of guilt, shame and fear that obstruct sexual vibrancy
- Sex through the phases of life: losing virginity, first relationships, parenting, divorce, menopause and advanced age
- Tantric sex for singles and couples
- Advanced orgasmic practices: full-body orgasms, cervical orgasms, g-spot orgasms and energy orgasms

Relationships

We all long for vibrant, intimate and deeply loving relationships. However, due to our emotional blueprint from childhood, adolescence and our family dynamics, many of us long for support, intimacy and partnership - yet we don't know how to create it or are too afraid to do so.

Relationships of all varieties are the container in which healthy love and sex flourish. Understanding the true nature and function of relationships allows you to help your clients get the love, sex, intimacy and partnership they desire.

Due to our culture's misunderstanding of how relationships function, many relationships end or self-destruct unnecessarily. While part of successful relationships is knowing when to say goodbye when something isn't working, most couples come for coaching because they desire to stay together but simply don't have the tools to make it work. We'll be covering how to understand relationship dynamics in such a way that even long-term couples can experience a thriving sexual and love dynamic.

Some examples of Relationship Coaching topics covered in the VITA™ Coaching Method are:

- How to heal damaged, broken or drifting relationships
- How to solve relationship issues of desire and sex
- How to change a relationship blueprint to attract a different partner
- How to use the sex and love tools to magnetize a soulmate
- How to deal with relationship challenges like children and busy lives as it relates to a healthy sex life
- Tools for building healthy, vibrant relationships
- Relationship breakdowns (and how to turn them into breakthroughs) – divorce, infidelity, lack of sex and lack of desire
- Communication tools

TRIMESTER
— ONE —

Total Self-Transformation Process

JANUARY - APRIL, 2025

A four-month deep dive into your own sexuality, heart and how you relate. You'll discover how to access your sexual ecstasy, power and sensitivity.

Practicing what you coach is a necessity for staying aligned with the techniques, tools and experiences you'll be offering your clients. If you are a sex coach, doing sexuality practices is essential, if you are a relationship coach, doing relationship development is essential, and if you are a love coach, you want to be continuously working on your heart.

Many coaching certifications offer you tools and coaching frames, but they don't do the time-intensive work of training you to become a higher level version of yourself.

In the VITA™ Coaching Certification, we place focus on this because who you are is the most important part of being able to confidently enroll clients in your programs.

- Repatterning programs
- The subconscious and the supraconscious

MODULE 10

Coaching Module: Healthy and Fabulous Relationships

- Understanding projections
- How to say what you really want
- Conscious arguments
- Communication skills
- Interpersonal healing

The tools included in the 10 coaching modules can be applied to a wide range of coaching topics relating to sex, love and/or relationships.

This is a universal map of transformation that can be used to transform literally anything, and we'll be focusing on how it applies specifically to our three core topics of coaching: sex, love and relationships.

However, we've listed below some examples to show you how this coaching sequence can apply to a particular niche in the wide world of coaching.

These are just a few of the possibilities! The VITA™ methodology is applicable to any topic you choose.

Dating Coach

If you want to be a dating coach, for example, you can use this 10-module coaching program to support your clients to clear their old blueprint of attracting partners and to up-level how they view themselves and their worthiness.

You can use these modules to show your clients how to use self-pleasure and manifestation to clear the way in their psyche for the partner they truly desire, or to address the fear of being abandoned that keeps them from dating.

Women's Empowerment Coach

As a women's empowerment coach, you will have the opportunity to work with businesses, organisations and individuals who want to learn how to attract, empower and retain the best women talent in their organisations.

You'll be able to help businesses and organisations create cultures that are conducive to women reaching their potential.

You'll be able to use the tools of play, celebration and power to allow a woman to be her most radiant, bold and vibrant self in her career, relationship and life.

Sex Coach for Long-Term Relationships that Have Lost Their Desire

With a profound understanding of relationship dynamics and communication, you'll be able to get to the root of each client's passion and sexual drive and to uncover the original wounding that is masking their current sexual hunger.

You'll be able to go through a process of profound sexual healing with your clients, revealing to them how their lack of desire is a message and a call for greater integration and how to use that message to build even more intimacy and trust in their partnership rather than running away and shutting down.

Life Transition Coach (Working with fertility, pregnancy, parenthood, menopause, advanced age issues)

Almost all life transitions call us into a deeper connection with our body, our sexuality, our hearts and our relationships. If we choose to embrace that, then the life transition is a gateway of opportunity.

However, most people miss this key understanding, and the transition becomes rife with struggle, pain and doubt. Using the 10-coaching module sequence, you can clear the way for your clients to remove conditioning from their family and their own fears around, for instance, aging or menopause.

You can enhance fertility by connecting women with their womb and ovaries with daily sexuality practices that are paired with the gentle release of layers of sexual blockages that keep their hormones and fertility operating at the optimal state.

Parenthood is also an area where family dynamics and heavy conditioning affect the relationship of sex between parents. You can work with your clients on the emotional barriers that prevent them from having an engaging sex life while also guiding them towards regular practices that build sensuality and intimacy, even if they don't have the energy or time for intercourse.

The sexual healing and transformation I went through in Trimester 1 was amazing but what I am truly so proud of is who I became in those Trimester 2 practicums! There was no hiding in Trimester 2, no more avoiding being seen, I had to show up and connect with other people, to let myself heal and grow with other people. That was truly life changing for me! I went from being paralyzed in my first call to now being so excited and confident in my capacity to show up as a space holder!

A space for LGBTQ+ members to connect and explore in the program together, to integrate the tools and explore how to apply the work through all dimensions of gender, sexuality and personal expression.

VITA™ Moms

For anyone going through pregnancy, has had a recent childbirth, is currently child-rearing that impacts their experience in the program or is a parent, this is a space to connect with each other and receive additional support and a space to digest your experiences.

VITA™ Vixens for Students 45+

A community space for students aged 45 years and older to come together to empower each other on your personal development and career paths. We recognize the power of this stage in life and the extra support that a group of your peers can offer in creating your coaching business and navigating issues that only more mature women can understand!

Hear what our graduates are saying about VITA™ Coaching

Through VITA™, I experienced total, unshakeable confidence in myself, the most intimate, deep body connection I've ever experienced and my change of career and lifestyle. It truly feels like I rebirthed myself during my year with VITA™!

– Elisabeth Z, Netherlands

I have a masters from Harvard and I think this course provided higher quality and value than my entire masters in public health program. I love the videos, supporting written documents, checklists, office hours, books, transmissions via coaching development calls and the step by step process to learn how to coach.”

– Melissa H, USA

VITA™ woke me up! My mind, my body and my spirit. It has challenged me and made me grow more in one year than in years of psychotherapy. This course has given me a set of new tools to enable my clients to feel their way through pain, grief and trauma and all this with a clear and set goal in mind.

– Candice B, USA

It was important to me to choose this program as I wanted to receive the tools to have a solid foundation to launch and grow my coaching business. I trust that the foundations I have learned are allowing me to build my business and develop myself as a coach from a place of love and integrity.

– Kate S, USA

What drew me was the overall process: starting with self and deep-diving inwards, then moving on to actual coaching plus bringing in the methodology then getting real hands-on experience plus the business aspect and majors, and then the post-course bonuses. It's just so complete. It feels like we've been shown the way and now it's up to us to add in our own magic!

– Alexa T, Canada

As a psychologist working with patients, I can definitely say that VITA™ has improved my skills and added to my tool box. VITA™ set me up to be a great coach!

– Charlotte Q, Germany

As a result of my strengthened coaching skills and confidence and my signature pussy-based business approach I created in the 18 months following VITA™ Coaching, I have grown my company to consistent recurring $50,000 months where I rarely work more than 40 hour weeks.

– Julia W, USA

VITA™ is so unique in regards to the liberation that you can see, touch, taste and believe in by being in this container - so many inner walls come tumbling down.

– Jo G, United Kingdom

I haven't met any other coaches or teachers that can take me to the depth that I learned in the program... nor have I encountered any other tools or methodology that is this powerful.

– Jenny B, USA

The practices I learned in VITA™ were soul affirming - they literally saved my soul. To be in ritual space with my body, soul, and power - it gave me the permission to find and be with myself.

– Jo P, USA

After VITA™, I became a six figure business owner... and I do it all by taking 4-6 months off a year!

– Carli Jo, USA

I'm a clinical psychologist, and I've found that the VITA™ tools are the MOST powerful thing in my practice.

– Angela C, USA

The community is everything! It is a huge part of what made the program feel so immersive. Supporting, challenging, celebratory, gorgeous.

– Aubree H, USA

VITA™ is one of the most well supported, thorough and expansive courses I have undertaken. The thoughtfulness of its design, the sheer quantity of material and the container's safety made it feel like a cocoon within which we could each develop, grow and ultimately burst from, fundamentally transformed.

– Adrienne M, Australia

I 100%, without any wavering doubt, would recommend this program. It was life changing. It supported my own transformation and truly gave me more tools than I could have ever thought to become a confident coach. Every step of the way I kept realizing just how much value this program holds and it is worth every single dollar you invest and every minute of your time!

– Alisa B, USA

I got my money's worth before
Trimester 1 was even over.

– Erin S, USA

What I didn't realize would happen is that it was going to expand me so much, that in the first quarter out of VITA™, I had already made $150k in my coaching business.

– Jo P, USA

I just had so much more confidence in what I was offering. Towards the end of the program I created a high level mastermind which I sold out in 3 months which was something I'd never done before.

– Lauren J, USA

My income in my first full year of coaching was about $73k, and this year is my second full year, and we're on track to be at about $160k.

– Tilly S, USA
